Describe how the individual being nominated represents CHART. Complete each section if applicable.

1. Effective communication of the culture.

For example: Newsletters, articles, letters, etc. that address the organization's attitude toward its employees at all levels.

2. Programs that demonstrate the commitment to people.

For example: Specific programs developed and implemented that proactively enhance the value of the organization's employees.

3. Efforts to be involved in the development of people.

For example: A demonstrated active involvement in the personal growth and development of the organization's employees.

4. Ability to break down barriers to create opportunities.

For example: Establishes means (both traditional and non-traditional) of allowing others to succeed...and the programs to recognize their successes.

The nomination process is not overwhelming. You do not need to involve your marketing department or do anything high tech. We want to hear from you and other employees, in simple e-mails or letters, how your President qualifies for this award. Nominations may be submitted by mail or e-mail (preferred), and include the Nomination Form plus any supporting letters, clippings, programs, or other collateral that will help the Award Committee fully understand how the nominee meets the Award criteria.

Please note: Anything submitted in hard copy must include 7 copies to be distributed to the Board.
