

It's a FUN-raiser in partnership with Childhelp to help children across our nation! It's part creative, part competition, part collaboration, and ALL the caring of CHART!

It's finally time to show us what you've got in the kitchen! We are putting out the call for all you food and beverage enthusiasts, wannabe chefs, home cooks that rock, closet mixologists, and those bound to amuse. Share what you've got by creating a video of your mad (or sad) skills and create your own FUN-raising page (directions below) in our CHART's Cooking & Cocktails for a Cause Challenge!

CHART is excited to announce our 35th community service event by partnering with Childhelp, a nationwide charity that has helped abused, neglected, and at-risk children for more than 60 years.

The pandemic has put many more children at risk of abuse, and the services of Childhelp are critical during this time. Funds raised go directly to support Childhelp.

So, do you think you have the chops (or fish, or chicken, or whatever) to callout your competition, or will you be called-out?

Visit www.childhelp.org for more information.

where to begin...

1. Create a fundraising page at www.childhelp.org/chart.
2. Pick your favorite recipe (food or cocktail) and make a fun video of you creating this concoction.
3. Don't forget to call out a few colleagues and friends for some friendly competition.
4. Add your video to your page by uploading your video to YouTube and using the URL link to connect it to your page. If you aren't able to upload your video to YouTube, please use DropBox to share it with Lisa@chart.org, She will upload it and send you the link.
5. Share your fundraising page and video on your social media and with your network of friends/family/colleagues.
6. Remember to have fun and don't be afraid to go all out!!

CHART's Cooking and Cocktails for a Cause begins
SEPTEMBER 30TH AND WILL RUN UNTIL NOVEMBER 30TH
If you have any questions please reach out to Lisa - lisa@chart.org.
